The Metropolitan Museum,
Numismatic Department,
New York City.

Gentlemen:

I have a number of old coins which I am anxious to sell, and would appreciate any information as to how they could be properly valued, before they are taken to a dealer. I have no knowledge on any such points myself, and would be entirely at the mercy of the purchaser.

Would it be possible for some one in your department to look over the collection and give me some idea of their value?

I shall be very grateful for your attention. I remain,
gentlemen,

Yours very truly,

McVeigh Harrison, etc

Dear Sir:

Your communication of September 2nd, addressed to the Metropolitan Museum has been referred to us for reply.

If you care to bring your coins to this Museum on any day, excepting Sundays and Mondays, we shall be glad to tell you what we can about them.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Mr. Howland Wood,
The American Numismatic Society,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Let me thank you for your very kind offer to look over my coins.
I hope to call next Friday morning, probably between 10 and 11 o'clock,
Daylight Savings Time.

I shall appreciate greatly having your opinion. Believe me,

Yours sincerely,
